The ANA Editorial Advisory Board is scheduled to meet on Saturday, August 17, at 10:00 a.m. in the Board Room at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare, adjacent to the Rosemont Exhibition Center.

The meeting's agenda will be open, although I would like to solicit your opinions about the regular columns currently running in The Numismatist and the possibility of introducing several new features, among them a column about paper money by Gene Hessler; an ANA Authentication Bureau column by ANA Authenticator J.P. Dear Eric:

In preparation for The Numismatist's annual literary awards, which will be presented at the ANA's upcoming convention in Denver, I would like to invite you to join members of the ANA Publications Committee as an official judge.

Under consideration this year are articles published in the 1995 volume of The Numismatist; enclosed is an "official ballot" listing eligible authors/articles. Remember, two literary awards are presented: the Heath Literary Award, which recognizes outstanding articles published in The Numismatist, and the Wayte and Olga Raymond Memorial Literary Award, which is presented for articles about U.S. numismatics that display original, in-depth research.

For the Heath Literary Award, a silver medal, certificate and $250 are awarded for first place; a bronze medal, certificate and $100 for second place; and a bronze medal and certificate for third place. Authors receiving honorable mention receive certificates of recognition. The Wayte and Olga Raymond Memorial Literary Award includes a $400 cash prize and certificate for first place and a $200 cash prize and certificate for second place.

Deadline for receipt of your "ballot" is June 20. If you require additional copies of The Numismatist to complete your judging, please let me know. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me.

Regards,

Barbara Gregory
